

Save the date- Saturday, October 22

Meet the Author and Book Signing

The Sharpsteen Museum invites you to meet retired Napa High School History teacher Henry Michalski, award-winning author of “Torn Lilacs”: A True WWII Story of Love, Defiance and Hope”.

This is the previously untold true story of a small village in Poland that produced two very strong-willed people (the author’s own parents Fela and Joska), who triumphed in the face of Nazi threats. It is most importantly their love story, and the tale of their survival through faith, hope, and divine intervention

Sat., October 22

12-1:30 pm

There will be opportunities for questions, and to have your personal copy (available for purchase) signed by the author!

Free event open to the public.
(Arrive early for best seats!)

Museum hours: M-F 12-3 pm;
Sat-Sun 11 am-4 pm.

1311 Washington St. Calistoga
(707) 942-5911

Sharpsteenmuseum.org