

SHARPSTEEN MUSEUM Presents

After the Fire-

Paradise seeks to piece together its past

On November 8, 2018 the Camp Fire destroyed the Gold Nugget Museum in Paradise and 98% of its collection. The resulting loss was an immeasurable blow to the town's cultural memory.

The Camp Fire as seen west of Paradise on November 8, 2018

Can you rebuild history from the ashes?

You can't replace history but with heart & fortitude you can try. You will have the opportunity to meet these formidable volunteers, directors and members of the Gold Nugget as they bring their story to Calistoga. With video presentation, they will share their experience of loss and the strength it takes to stand up strong against a raging fire.

Thursday, March 12, 5:30-7:00 pm

Free of charge & open to the public.

GOLD
NUGGET
MUSEUM

Temporary quarters at the Depot Museum.

The Gold Nugget Museum needs your support to help restore their town's past. Their website: goldnuggetmuseum.com

1311 Washington St., Calistoga
(707) 942-5911 sharpsteenmuseum.org